SUNSHINE SAMMY COMING TO THE BOOKER WASHINGTON
IN PERSON NEXT WEEK

Frederick Ernest Morrison, the diminutive colored comedian known in local vaudeville as "Sunshine Sammy," will appear at the Booker Washington Theatre in person all next week beginning Saturday, Aug. 4. The famous little screen star has made several personal appearances on the stage this year and has been a big hit everywhere he goes. His unique style has made him as big a sensation behind the footlights as in pictures. He is supported by his own company and the act consists of a series of droll sketches. This will be his first appearance in St. Louis.

Other good acts on the bill will be Long & Jackson, in their original act, "The Sound Train"; Dudley & Williams, a sister team; King Nappy, a wonderful dancer and Hattie Smith, a comedienne. All these will be in costume. Bookers will be open daily for the patrons to draw their "Pay Day" envelopes.

THIS WEEK'S VAUDEVILLE AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

The Vaudeville Bill at the Booker Washington Theatre this week is good entertainment and is pleasing the patrons.

Oakley and Oakley are the curtain raisers who have excellent voices and voices, followed by a many of choruses, followed by some humorous conversation. The female member has a song and dance that goes along with the male member into domestic trouble but he wins out and the act closes in singing and dancing.

Patricia and her male assistant have a mental telepathy act. She remains on the stage blindfolded while he goes through the audience, asking questions which she answers to the patrons which she describes minutely. She also answers questions whispered to her side. The act is entitled "Telepathy."

Harry Plate and Elvira Wilson use light comedy and good singing to win the praise of the audience. They have a good deal of comic talk. They open singing "Smile, Just Smile," "Influent Sweetie" is a conversational song. Other songs include "I'm a Good Girl," "Baree, Mama, Can Do," and Miss Wilson in a sweet voice scores with "If You Hadn't Gone Away." The finale is "When My Sweetie Walks Down the Street." The act wins nicely.

Babe Siskin and Billy Walker close the show. They open singing and dancing. After a brief conversation, Walker makes a hit with his eccentric song "Tootie Loo" and a song with Uncle Tom's "All God's Chillun' Got Wings." Babe Siskin, Mama, Can Do, and Miss Wilson in a sweet voice scores with "If You Hadn't Gone Away." The finale is "When My Sweetie Walks Down the Street." The act wins nicely.

THE MIDNIGHT RAMBLE NETS $3023.40 FOR BOB RUSSELL

The Booker Washington Theatre was crowded to standing room Wednesday night at the Midnite Rambles given for the benefit of prostate patient Bob Russell, who is confined in the hospital. The show was opened three hours long and a bargain entertainment for those who attended. The local slogan was "Buy a ticket, the entire current week's bill at the theatre and other shows including white performers. Charles Creath's orchestra and the local efforts and was a big hit.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

"Back to Life" will be the Star Theatre feature this Saturday. Patsey Ruth Miller and David Powell host the cast in this picture, which tells the romantic story of a man who loses his identity when a miracle of surgery gives him a new face. His wife, however, decides this makes him a worthless man.

Harry Carey in "Silent Sanderson" will be the main attraction. It is an unusual story having most of its action in the frozen North. As a great hearted Westerner who seeks forgetfulness in the cold country where he has been banished, Harry Carey gives the finest performance in his picture career. The Battling Orioles, featuring Glenn Tryon, will be the second feature. The film was built around the world's toughest baseball team in 1914.

Jack Dempsey and his wife, Estelle Taylor, will be in "Manhattan Madness" on Monday. Tom Mix will be featured in "Twisted Trails," and Cliff Smith with Eileen Sedgwick in "Scarred Hands." The Wednesday special will be Bob Custer in "The Range Terror."

"Up the Ladder" will be the attraction on Tuesday and Friday. It is a story which revolves around a young woman, who, after sacrificing her hereditary fortune that her husband had, falls in love with him through his infidelity through the instrument of his own invention, the Television phone. This ultra invention is an attempt to make it possible for people to actually see whom one converses with over the telephone. In this picture Virginia Valli is the wife and Forrest Stanley, the husband.

THE JESTERS COME A picture thrill with Nedra Volz, George O'Brien, Ross Adams and Walter Hiers in the leading roles, will be the Jesters come this special, this Saturday.

Mark and David Zander's "Zander the Great" will be the attraction on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It is a modern comedy drama in which Miss Edwards evolves from a little girl in an attempt to a young woman of strong character, great beauty and

By EMMETT BROWN

BIDS SOLICITED FOR EX-SERVICE MEN'S BURIAL

Dr. S. D. Clayton, Chief Clinical Officer of the U. S. Veterans Bureau, Chouteau, Okla., advises that bids will be considered from our local undertakers for the burial of service men who are entitled to the Government allowance for burial expense. Full information can be had from Dr. S. D. Clayton of the above address, from General Brown, 721 N. Compton avenue.

Home Again

Sister Vice Commander Hilly B. Holmes, of Custer, Wm. L. White, Camp Spain War Veterans, is at home again after an extended trip through Georgia and Florida.

She is the wife of Wm. L. White, president of the Woman's Auxiliary Unit of Corp. Wm. L. White Camp Spain Raising of the State Flag.

According to her, the 1925 legislation grants the privilege to claimants of reconsideration of claims upon request. If it is found that the original claim was erroneously disallowed, the former claim can be cancelled, and a new claim approved for payment. She is apprised that veterans should take advantage of this new provision, and any one needing advice or assistance get in touch with officers or members of the American Legion or Calvin Hyde Post American Legion.

Please Advise

Information is given in the above article which can be found in the General's Diary any notation that when the boys were misbehaving in the face of the enemy, and retreating in the rear, they were told that the General came up from his shell-shocked dugout and cried, "Turn, boys, turn, we are going back."

GET BONUS BLANKS

Through the kindness of Honorable Dr. Dryden, the Director, who distributed blanks to all former service men of the World War, who desire to make claims for bonus under the recent act, may now be had free and can be had just for the asking. Notary service can also be had.

GO TO KINLOCH SUNDAY

I've looked and looked with all my eyes.
Out Sunday, and you will be surprised.
Green Cut Inn

The largest dance floor in the country located at Kinloch Park, Mo., open every Saturday from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. You never saw anything like it missed. Oh, the Green Cut Orchestra just won't quit.

Take Wm. Wright or Hadden east to Webster, their Kirkwood Ferguson to Kinloch, the big place on the hill. Special Notice—Don't miss our big picnic, Tuesday, August 4. There will be barrels of fun.

CORRECTION

The list of officers elected at St. Louis by Harmonia Grand Chapter, O. E. S. in last week's issue of the Argus stated that Mrs. Black of Webster was elected Grand Convenor. This was an error. Mrs. Anna E. Horn of St. Louis was elected Grand Convenor and Mrs. Black of Webster was elected Grand Associate Convenor.

ORPHANS' HOME NOTES

The members of the Board of Directors and management wish to thank the friends who have given valuable service to the children of the Home during the year. The home is the home of the Orphans' Home Class, Antioch Mission Circle, led by Mrs. L. Taylor, seen regularly every Thursday afternoon, and have meetings every Saturday evening.

The West End Overlook Club, represented by Mrs. Plummer, is making table cloths for the dining room. The children of The Antioch Boys' Association, under leadership of Mrs. Rhoda Dupree and Mrs. Lavina Elder, have a much needed and highly popular new addition to their summer program. Coming Saturday, June 27, there will be a glorious picnic and trip to the Zoo in Forest Park. Mrs. Tucker, assisted by Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. Farnum, Mrs. Jepson, Mrs. and Mrs. Miller, Misses Gladys Given and Edna Taylor took the children to the park in the morning and while the lemonade, coffee and cake made the picnic a genuine occasion. We thank Mrs. Newell for her splendid donation.

Our sincere thanks to all whose generosity will enable us to soon free the institution of debt.

"Y" FREE SWIM WEEK

The Pine Street Y. M. C. A. open the week of August 23, hours 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., make an offer to the public. In addition to picnics, dances, banquets and every walk of life, the opportunity for a full week of free swimming.

The Association swimming pool is standard size, sanitary and under the direction of an expert life saver. During this week men will be taught how to swim and swimmen will be given the opportunity to learn. This is indeed a rare opportunity for the recreational enjoyment for the men of our city.

General Director has recently returned from the Springfield Y. M. C. A. College, Springfield, Mass., where he took advanced courses in swimming and recreation supervision. It is expected that hundreds of men will avail themselves of the opportunity to "dip" once per day in the big "Y" swimming pool.

It takes a man longer to find a hot pocket than it takes a woman's blouse to look through fifteen pockets.

Police Doing

(Police Lie Enough) Chief of Detectives Kaiser yesterday said that no unfair arrests will result from his proposed system of awarding points to his men for captures made. His plan as likely to encourage detectives to make unjust arrests.

"We are after the crooks," said Kaiser, "and if we have an efficient, hard-working force, I know who my best men are and what they are doing. But I do not know how to measure the others. That is the purpose of the point system."

"You can depend on me to see that the men are made up to standards," said Kaiser, "but I am not a foolish foolproof for a detective to bring in a lot of suspects without reason, for he would receive one point for each and could not possibly build a record that way."

"If I find any man making arrests and getting rewards, I will fine him," said Kaiser, "but I do not believe that I can do that."

Therefore on July 12, 1925, a clause in the new law, which makes it illegal to discriminate in the merit system, will work at all and it will lead to trouble," said Kaiser.

Thanking my friends and patrons for their past patronage,

PAVILION OF POLICY DELAYS THE GAME

On August 20, 1924, I opened and began operating the DU BOIS HOTEL, 4232 Enright Avenue, and garage, which name I used because I wanted to give the Negroes all modern conveniences that I did not have.

Therefore on July 12, 1925, a clause in the new law, which makes it illegal to discriminate in the merit system, will work at all and it will lead to trouble," said Kaiser.

PAVILION OF POLICY DELAYS THE GAME

Bad Luck is not unusual to those who play policy games but to hold the wimping numbers and have the police catch the pay off men and the police get the winners, the wimping gets it, is the luck of all. This happened Tuesday night and several winners are becoming the fact.

Plenty of money was won, some was arrested in an alley in the rear of 3220 Flinn Avenue, and the police department, containing $50.00, which was paid to the men to pay the winners in his district, in the Big White Policy Game.

MAN ALLOWED TO FIX OWN SENTENCE TAKES 60 DAYS

County Judge, Weber of Belleville, permitted Fred Michael to fix his sentence after he had pleaded guilty of carrying a concealed weapon, Tuesday.

"You understand I can sentence you to a year in jail," said Judge Weber.

"Yes sir," said Michael.

"Well, if you were Judge and I was the prisoner, what would you do?" asked the interested Judge Weber.

"Well if you carried the gun for your own protection and had no evil intentions in your mind, then I would give you 60 day in jail," said the prisoner.

"Well you didn't intent to hold up anybody or kill anybody?" asked the prisoner.

"On Michaels' promise that he never again would carry a pistol, Judge Weber let him off with 60 days in jail.

They are masterful in self-restraint, according to advice coming direct from the big town. The President, it seems, will not stop it. He is in Swampscott, and it is there that he will be able to do his best to help the Washington delegation, when the nerve of the Kluxers has become the all absorbing topic of the day. The outside, to say the least, is serious.

Best And The Monarchs In Four Game Series. Stars Will Fight Hard To Increase Their Lead In The Pennant Race.

The Memphis Red Sox, invited by the St. Louis Barons, arrived in St. Louis Tuesday morning and watched the Stars and Birmingham in two games.

The Red Sox will play a series of five games with the Stars beginning Saturday. The visitors are full of pep because of their recent showing at the Indianapolis, Kansas City, and Monarchs' expense. They have won every game in Missouri, metropolitan, the Red Sox won the first and the last game. This gives them an even record of 11 wins and 6 losses during the second season.

Each team has won three and the seventh is tie. The Red Sox's pitchers are good and fast at present, but the Stars' best has yet to be developed.

The St. Louis Stars will fight hard to break down the visitors from the top of the pennant race for the moment. The Stars' defense was noticeably strengthened this week when Manager Tyler (T. C.) signed up for the second base. Tyler went to right, but an unfortunate accident to his shoulder necessitated another pitcher, sending Tyler to left field. Ross, in right field, has been held captive to improve and the pitchers get more encouragement with Russell at the keystone.

The Stars' star player, Birmingham, but was so erratic in doing so that it made the Barons look much stronger than they really are. Memphis will be harder to beat than the Stars, but the Stars will have to work hard on the ground throughout the series and let the stars do the talking. All games will be called at 3 o'clock, and parties will be admitted free to spectators.

Brewer Tailors Defeat The Pullmans 15 To 10

The Brewer Tailors defeated the Pullmans 15 to 10 in a home game at Forest Park last Sunday. They scored a pitcher's duel between Harrison of the Brewers and Jim Jones of the Pullmans.

Going into the ninth, it was any body's game, but the Brewers quickly disposed of the issue when Brown and Jones walked and scored, and then tried and Jones failed to score any runs. Cox and John pulled the hitters, each getting four out of the nine frames. While he tried to pitch his hits and was out on a beautiful relay play to Brown by Howell. Harrison's return from which he will be called for a full game, will not mean much to the team.

MEDIEVAL STATE EXISTS IN AFRICA REPORT REVEALS

Natives Are Subjected To Oppression. Little Provisions For Needs, League Report Shows.

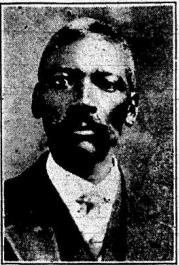

CHICAGO, July 29.—An intensive investigation of the present situation in Portuguese East Africa made by Dr. E. W. McBride, professor of sociology at the U. S. Wisconsin, discloses a state of affairs so servile, almost primitive, to that of the days of early African colonization, when foreigners came in and subjected natives to toll under the lash.

The report gave startling conclusions as to the state of affairs in Angola and Portuguese East Africa at the present time.

The international system, the account brought out, is virtually a state of serfdom, which is so confining that last week was the popularity contest between New Hope Baptist Church on 21st and 22nd and Avenue of which Rev. J. L. McBride is the pastor, and Mt. Zion Baptist Church of which Rev. J. Smith is pastor. The con-

Rev. J. L. McBride Wins High Honor As Moderator Of The New Salem Baptist Association

REV. J. L. MCBRIDE

The most popular minister that has been in East St. Louis for a long time was the popularity contest between New Hope Baptist Church on 21st and 22nd Avenue of which Rev. J. L. McBride is the pastor, and Mt. Zion Baptist Church of which Rev. J. Smith is pastor. The contest started about four weeks ago and was working itself to fever heat between the two congregations until it reached its climax Sunday, July 26, 1925, when Mt. Zion won, raising $64,425. Amid cheers and salutes, Rev. McBride, who has been pastor to Negroes here for 12 years, marched forward and received his badge of honor, which was presented by Prof. M. A. Jackson, the beautiful and fitting language, like the conqueror to Napoleon the great hero. Mt. Zion Church is just completing new buildings and expects to be also planning to build a beautiful church in the near future.

Long live Rev. McBride, who has led people from a one room to the four story modern building to the glory of God.

ADVOCATES PAINTED KNEES FOR WOMEN

Associated Negro Press.

CHICAGO, July 29.—"Painted knees are the latest thing," according to Mrs. Ruth Morris, who pointed to a number of the Negroes in the collection of these cutouts here. "Hand painted pictures on the knees are intriguing. Some designs are simple, others elaborate. Some girls prefer a flower, a group of flowers, or a girl era like a portrait or a little landscape."

Moral support for worthy public measures can only be capitalized in the ballot box. Voting should be frequent and convenient.

More than 6,000 delegates and visitors attended the quadrennial session of the Mosaic Templars held here last week. The principal address in opening session was delivered by Bishop W. C. Vernon of the A. M. E. Zion Church. The National Mosaic, Dr. S. J. Elliott presided at the session. Among the prominent were the order heading committees and taking active part in the proceedings of the meeting. Dr. E. Bush, native grand serjeant, P. L. Durman, I. T. Gilliam, Dr. J. H. Clayborn, D.
